READY AT HAVRE DE GRACE

Meeting to Open This Afternoon with Good Racing in Prospect.

Track in Good Condition and Probably Will Be Fast—Jack Hare Jr. Named to Start.

Havre de Grace, Md., April 15.—The thirteen days' meeting at Havre de Grace, which is scheduled to begin tomorrow, promises to be one of the best ever held at the Harford County track. While there will be no special race trains, still arrangements have been made for all of the regular trains to stop at Havre de Grace and racegoers will soon accustom themselves to this new arrangement. Every stall on the ground is occupied and stabling is now at a premium. The track is in good condition, despite the terrific downpour of rain last week. With continued good weather, the track promises to be fast tomorrow.

Jockey J. G. Petz was an arrival from Belmont Park, where he has been galloping horses the past month for William Karrick. Petz has made a connection with R. D. McDaniel and will ride the horses that this young horseman is training. Another rider that got in this morning was J. Boland, one of the best of the elder division of jockeys, who has been riding in the west during the past few years. Boland is especially good at riding two-year-olds. C. Peak also got in from Hot Springs. He will ride as a free lance here. Roger Minton is also here and will look after the engagements for jockey Pitz.

Several stables got in from Havana this morning. In the consignment were J. Hope with Bill Simmons and Dignity, William Keating with Margaret L., and W. H. Martin with Mother Machree and Frank Keogh. All shipped well and, despite their long trip, were unloaded in good condition. Bill Simmons is the property of Col. Peppe Estrampes, one of the prominent politicians of the Conservative party in Cuba. Col. Estrampes is an enthusiastic horseman and an ardent lover of the thoroughbred.

Before leaving Cuba W. H. Martin disposed of the plater Battle Abbey and H. C. Riddle sold the three-year-old Dryer to G. Odell.

The horses that came here from New York are all in forward condition and several of them have worked well since their arrival.

ROSS HORSES ATTRACT ATTENTION.

The Wilmington Handicap, to be decided here Thursday, April 18, will be a race of unusual interest this spring because it bids fair to bring to the post half a dozen or more of the good eastern three-year-olds that are being trained for the Preakness at Pimlico. Prominent among the colts and fillies which are being pointed for the Preakness which may be seen in the Wilmington are Commander Ross' seven English and Irish runners—Hillhampton, Bonnie Dance, Wigstone, Canso, Foreground, Corn Exchange and Althea.

Bonnie Dance, the most forward of this string, if recent work counts for anything, won the Phoenix Park Plate at Dublin last summer. These horses are all good lookers and Bedwell has them in first-rate condition. Among the three-year-olds better known to patrons of American racing and engaged to run with these are Bonnie Broom, Jack Hare Jr., Nepperhan, Amackassin, Ballast, Papp, K. of K., Mancha, Happy Go Lucky, Cobalt and Whippoorwill.

Harry Payne Whitney has a big band of likely juveniles here ready for racing. His youngsters, all of them homebred, were prepared for the Havre de Grace races at Benning by Albert Simons and they came here ready. Included in the Whitney string is a half-sister of Buskin, a half-sister of Bonnie Broom, a half-brother of Cobalt and a half-brother of Jacobite and Charles Edward.

Other well-known eastern and western horsemen who will show good youngsters at Havre de Grace are Joseph L. Murphy, Samuel D. Riddle, George D. Widener, Walter M. Jeffords and Joseph E. Widener, all of Philadelphia; Richard T. Wilson, president of the Saratoga Association; Richard F. Carman, Wilfred Viau, P. A. Clark, C. E. Clement, George Wingfield, of Nevada; James W. McClelland, W. R. Coe, Maj. Gifford A. Cochran, R. O. Egan, of California; Cornelius Fellowes, Lewis Garth, William Garth, John Lumsden, Commander Ross, J. S. Tyree, R. H. McCarter Potter, J. L. Price, Capt. Philip Walker, U. S. A.; Emil Herz, J. S. Ownbey and Capt. W. J. Press.

STEEPLECHASING A PLENTY.

There will be steeplechasing a plenty at Havre de Grace and many of the best fencers of the east that are being prepared for the Green Spring Valley Steeplechase will be here. The cross-country course is in beautiful condition, the rains of the last few days having had a particularly stimulating effect on the sod.

Unless the plans of the management are altered the order of the running of the Havre de Grace stakes will be as follows: Harford Handicap, April 16; Wilmington, April 18; Philadelphia Handicap, April 20; Aberdeen, April 22; Penn, April 24; Perryville, April 25; Susquehanna, Handicap, April 27, and Chester, April 30.

James Fitzsimmons has arrived from Gravesend with the Quincy Stable, which is made up mostly of two-year-olds. Other arrivals from Gravesend are James Murphy, Otto Ransch, James Boden and "Sandy" McNaughton. Gloomy Gus, a top-notch selling plater and a reliable horse, is Ransch's best bet. McNaughton has brought down the four-year-old Riverdale, which has matured noticeably, the three-year-olds George Starr, George Clark and Billy Murphy and a couple of two-year-olds. But McNaughton thinks a lot more of his promising young jockey, Kummer, than he does of all of his horses put together. Kummer rode creditably at Bowie.

The Harford Handicap promises well. The distance is too short to call for anything but high speed and High Cost, Jack Hare Jr., Tea Caddy, Startling and Fitzwilliam can furnish that in its best manifestation. The latter is an English colt, that H. G. Bedwell is training for J. K. L. Ross. He beat good race horses in England last year and may be dangerous here. All around the entries afford a welcome relief from low-class contestants engaged in the Bowie racing.

M. SHANNON TAKEN TO LEXINGTON

Lexington, Ky., April 15.—Mickey Shannon, widely known as "the Celtic bard of the American turf," was brought here yesterday from Memphis, seriously ill and probably will be placed in a state hospital here for treatment.

RACING PLANS OF WINGFIELD STABLE

Eastern Division Will Begin at Havre and Continue on to Saratoga—Latest Western Gossip.

Reno, Nev., April 15.—A pretentious campaign has been mapped out for the band of thoroughbreds recently shipped from Pleasanton, where they wintered, to Havre de Grace, Maryland, by George Wingfield, proprietor of the Nevada Stock Farm.

The shipment, which was in charge of trainer Early Wright, arrived safely. It is composed as follows:

Bank, Tombolo, Square Set, Slippery Elm, Star Shooter, Lycia, Miss Fielder and the two-year-olds, Snow Queen and Carey Maid, both of which were bred at the Nevada Stock Farm.

The riding for the stable will be done by jockeys McIntyre and Troxler, the latter of whom is riding in fine form at the Bowie meeting.

The eastern campaign will start at Havre de Grace April 16 and will be continued at Jamaica. The Wingfield horses have been assigned stable No. 26 at Belmont Park and will be quartered there until the Empire City meeting, whence they will be shipped to Saratoga.

The chief hope of the stable is the three-year-old colt Tombolo, by Grey Leg—Bernina, and which has been entered in many important stakes for three-year-olds in the country, including the Latonia Derby and the Dwyer Stakes.

Tombolo's first start will be in the rich Preakness, to be decided at Pimlico May 15.

Another horse of which great things are expected is the four-year-old Square Set, which has finished into a magnificent animal and which is expected to make his mark in the handicap division.

In connection with Tombolo, it may be mentioned that Walter Jennings, trainer for A. K. Macomber, has offered the services of jockey Loftus, America's premier rider, to ride Tombolo in any race in which a Macomber horse isn't taking part. Wingfield is highly gratified at Jennings' offer, and thinks that it is as great a compliment to his colt as could possibly be paid.

The following horses belonging to Wingfield arrived here from Pleasanton last Friday:

The two-year-olds Ladysmith, Fireplace, Hipperdozer, Perplex and Tabulator. The three-year-old Tickford and the four-year-old If Coming.

The stallion Atheling also arrived and the broodmares Emerald Isle, Chocolate Lady, Lady Souffle, Jeanne d'Arc, Scarlet Oaks, Gladiola, Celesta, Ida, Envy, Thistle Belle and Sugar Maid.

Jeanne d'Arc has a foal at foot by Honeywood and has been bred to Atheling, as have Emeral Isle, Scarlet Oaks, Gladiola, Celesta, Ida, Envy, Thistle Belle and Sugar Maid.

Minnow is at the Wickkiup Stock Farm, owned by J. H. Rosseter.

VALUABLE POLYMELUS FOAL DEAD.

J. H. Rosseter's Roman Lady dropped a colt foal to Honeywood March 28.

All sportsmen will regret to learn that Bernina, dam of Tombolo, foaled to Polymelus last Friday morning and that the foal died shortly after. Polymelus is the sire of Honeywood, and one of the leading English sires. Great things were naturally expected of the result of the union with Bernina, but such is the lottery of breeding and George Wingfield is far too good a sportsman to cry over spilled milk. Bernina is by St. Serf—Miss Taylor.

There are twelve of the Nevada Stock Farm thoroughbreds at present in training at the local track, in charge of George W. Berry, superintendent of the stock farm. They are as follows:

The two-year-olds Dutch Lady, Fireplace, Perplex, Ladysmith, Tabulator, Hipperdozer, Dora Starr, Dinah and Desert Rose; the three-year-olds Tickford and Divland, and the four-year-old If Coming.

Divland and Dinah are owned by W. F. Echols, a local sportsman.

Trainer Berry expects to have this string in the best of condition to give a good account of themselves at the coming Reno meeting.

The stable riding will be done by jockeys Ira Gregory and Arthur Aguayo. Trainer Berry has secured from Dr. P. E. Schwarts the contract of Gregory, a promising apprentice, and he will commence work today.

Aguayo is an old-time rider, who has worked for Berry before, notably when the latter had charge of the horses of A. B. Spreckels.

Already the announcement of the local meeting, to commence June 15, is attracting widespread attention among horsemen. A shipment of seven horses has arrived from Tijuana, including Laura Miller and Gasket, the latter a frequent winner on the local track. Honolulu Boy, owned by Tyron & Malloy is also expected from Hot Springs.

Ninety-five horses are shortly expected to arrive from Tijuana.

There are already about fifty horses in training at the local track and the number will be steadily increased from now on.

Hal Booker has Fitzgerald and three fillies of Dr. George E. Bamberger, who also owns the two-year-old Codfish, by Deutschland—Avona.

There is a probability that M. P. Guilliams, well-known local horseman, may race a few horses at the coming meeting. It is several years since Guilliams campaigned any of his own.

Tobe Ramsey has engaged five stalls at the local track for his horses, which are coming from Hot Springs.

CURRENT NOTES OF THE TURF

The Brighton Stable's John Powers looks promising, but needs more training at the barrier.

Rody Patterson has left Louisville for Belmont Park to train the horses of Robert L. Gerry.

Walter Scofield is the new trainer of the Keystone Stable, taking the place vacated by Rody Patterson.

Edward McBride's three-year-old Charlie Leydecker won both of his starts at Bowie and appears to have improved considerably during the winter.

Sid C. Keener and Fannie Mehan, both winners at Bowie and both of them cheap yearlings, are, obviously, two-year-olds of better than average quality.

Julius Reeder, assistant to Secretary J. B. Campbell of the Louisville and Latonia tracks, has arrived at Louisville from Hot Springs. From the same point Thomas Tooher has also just arrived.

Reynolds, a two-year-old in the Thomas Clyde Stable, which has not as yet faced the barrier, is reported to be a good one. He is said to be faster than either Mahony, Dunedin or Wewoka, which carried the Clyde colors to victory at Bowie.

J. W. Schorr's Derby candidate Jas. T. Clark worked a mile in 1:40⅘ at Douglas Park Saturday morning. The colt is showing great improvement over the form he displayed at New Orleans and Hot Springs and will be given a race or two at Lexington.

Following were some of the best recent moves at Churchill Downs: Guy Fortune and Sunflash, mile in 1:45⅖; Lady Always, mile in 1:48; Saza-Namy and Ichi-Ban, three-quarters in 1:16; Clairvoyant, five-eighths in 1:04; Enos, three-quarters in 1:19; Tally, mile in 1:48⅕.

SUN BRIAR IN LATONIA DERBY

Belated Entries Show Crack Colt Entered in Latonia's Chief Race, Also in Kentucky Handicap.

Cincinnati, O., April 15.—It turns out that Willis Sharp Kilmer's Sun Briar has been nominated both for the Latonia Derby and the Kentucky Handicap, two $10,000 added events, to be run at Latonia and Douglas Park, respectively, during the approaching season of spring racing in Kentucky. When the nominations for these two rich races were recently announced, there was general regret among turf enthusiasts that Sun Briar's name was missing, inasmuch as nearly all of the other star racers had been named for both of these big races.

When General Manager John Hachmeister of the Latonia and Douglas Park tracks returned from a brief vacation trip to Florida a few days ago, he brought with him the nominations of Sun Briar for the Latonia Derby, the Kentucky Handicap and other stakes to be run at Latonia and Douglas Park, in addition to other nominations from the Kilmer stable for other stakes at the two tracks named. These nominations had been forwarded to Mr. Hachmeister in Florida by his representatives in Kentucky, under the impression that they were mail of a private character, there being nothing on the envelopes in which they were enclosed to indicate that they were stake nominations.

After the publication of what purported to be a list of the nominations for the two big races in question, additional entries were received that had been mailed in time, but which had been belated in the mails through the operation of the censorship on matter coming from Cuba and for other reasons. The revised and complete list of the nominations for the Latonia Derby is made up of the following:

Aurum	Freecutter	Ocean Sweep
American	Gipsy Queen	Plum
Arrah Go On	Gibby	Papp
American Eagle	Happy Thought	Peerless One
Big Enough	Hollinger	Rahu
Bubbling Louder	Herald	Rubber II.
Boniface	Hillhampton	Robert L. Owen
Bonnie Dance	Harry Breivogel	Recount
Cracow	High Cost	Rog
Corn Exchange	Johren	Sungold
Cum Sah	Jim Heffering	Sun Briar
Canso	Jay Bird	Sunny Slope
Duke of Savoy	Jas. T. Clark	Sewell Combs
Don Dodge	J. Walker	Spearlene
Decisive	James Foster	Snapdragon II.
Dr. Levy	Japhet	Tally
Dr. Shafer	Kerrigan	Tacola
Escoba	Kling	The Toff
Everest	Lucky B.	Talmadge
Enos	Melus	Tombolo
Exterminator	Mary Maud	W. P. Dabny
Foreground	Out the Way	Wigstone
Frank Burke	Olive Wood

The revised list of eligibles for the Kentucky Handicap is made up of the following:

Arriet	Friendless	Olive Wood
Beaverkill	Fell Swoop	Omar Khayyam
Blackie Daw	Freecutter	Pif Jr.
Buford	Faux-Col	Plum
Basilius	Green Jones	Royal II.
Courtship	Guy Fortune	Roamer
Colonel Vennie.	Hollinger	Rancher
Capt. Rees	Hollister	Sewell Combs

Everest	Midway	Valor
Franklin	Opportunity	Westy Hogan

NOMINATIONS TO PREAKNESS STAKES

One Hundred and Forty-Four Three-Year-Olds Entered in Pimlico's Big Race.

New York, April 15.—With a final count of the nominations made to the Preakness Stakes at Pimlico, it is shown that 144 entries have been received. These come from seventy-one different interests and every racing establishment of importance is represented in the big list. This race will be run May 15 and that date will afford an opportunity for starters in the Kentucky Derby to be shipped to Pimlico to take part in this race.

Commander J. K. L. Ross, the Canadian sportsman, for whom H. G. Bedwell trains a big string, is the most liberal nominator with seven named. Harry Payne Whitney and A. K. Macomber each have six eligibles. Joseph E. Widener and George W. Loft have each named five. Morton L. Schwartz, Glen Riddle Farm, A. H. Harris and the Quincy Stable have each made four nominations. Three each have been made by Edward F. Whitney, B. F. Watkins, Samuel Ross, Richard F. Carman, Lieutenant Gifford A. Cochran, Mrs. Walter M. Jeffords, Edward B. McLean and Mrs. Sandy McNaughton.

Those who have two eligibles are Major August Belmont, R. L. Bresler, Maj. Edward B. Cassatt, F. Ambrose Clark, C. B. Clement, W. R. Coe, G. H. Browne, A. H. Diaz, J. R. Griffith, F. Houseman, Willis Sharpe Kilmer, John Lumsden, William Martin, Andrew Miller, Henry J. Morris, Edward McBride, S. K. Nichols, Captain Ral Parr, L. O. Sawyer, George D. Widener and Richard T. Wilson.

The other nominators, who have named one each, are: Kenneth D. Alexander, W. E. Applegate, A. L. Aste, Calumet Stable, George E. Chancellor, Cleveland Stable, Capt. Joseph E. Davis, J. France, A. B. Gallaher, Greentree Stable, Emil Herz, Francis R. Hitchcock, Walter S. House, Walter M. Jeffords, A. Johnson, Frederick Johnson, Kentucky Stable, James McManus, A. Neal, Nevada Stock Farm, Oneck Stable, Potomac Stable, Herbert L. Pratt, Thomas R. Queen, J. F. Sweeney, B. J. Thuring, Triple Springs Farm, J. S. Tyree, Wilfred Viau, Henry Watterson, H. R. A. West, C. P. Winfrey and Orlando Yzquierdo.

WAR CLOUD TO START IN THE DERBY

Louisville, Ky., April 15.—In a letter just received from W. B. Jennings by the New Louisville Jockey Club officials, the trainer of A. K. Macomber's eastern stable states that he will ship the Kentucky Derby candidate War Cloud and another horse from Belmont Park to Churchill Downs May 1. This sets aside all rumors that trainer Jennings had not intended starting a colt in the Derby. War Cloud, according to reports, is training in fine form and will be fit and ready to face the barrier on the afternoon of May 11.

GARRISON TO PURCHASE NEW STABLE

New York, April 15.—C. M. Garrison, owner of the Calumet Stable, who lost his entire string of racers in the fire that destroyed a stable at the Bowie race track last week, has begun the work of getting together another stable of thoroughbreds. Mr. Garrison, who was in this city when he heard of his loss, at once opened negotiations with Grant Hugh Browne for the purchase of several horses, among them King Herod, Ed Cudihee and Josefina Zarate. It is likely he will add others before the season is far advanced.

IMPORTANT STAKE DATES

Kentucky Handicap to Be Decided at Douglas Park June 1.

Saturday, June 22, Set for the Running of the Latonia Derby.

Cincinnati, O., April 15.—The Kentucky Handicap, of $10,000 added, one mile and a quarter, the richest of American races for horses of all ages, will be run at Douglas Park on Saturday, June 1, and the Latonia Derby, of the same value, one mile and a half, for three-year-olds, which ranks with the Kentucky Derby and the Kentucky Handicap as the most important of western races, will be decided at Latonia on Saturday, June 22. These important announcements, for which racing enthusiasts throughout the United States have been eagerly waiting, were made today by John Hachmeister, general manager of the Latonia and Douglas Park tracks. Both of these great races have filled to the entire satisfaction of Manager Hachmeister and bold out the promise of contests that will challenge the attention of racing devotees throughout the country.

The complete list of the dates selected by Manager Hachmeister for the decision of the stake races scheduled for the Douglas Park and Latonia spring meetings is embraced in the subjoined tabulation:

Cincinnati Trophy, for two-year-olds, $4,000 added, three-quarters of a mile, Saturday, July 13.

IMPROVED WEATHER IN THE EAST

Trainers Are Again Able to Work Their Horses Over Metropolitan Tracks—Sanford Horses in Form.

New York, April 15.—There was a break in the weather hereabouts yesterday and horses on the local tracks were permitted to gallop today in preparation for more serious work tomorrow.

Walter Jennings has practically decided to ship War Cloud to Kentucky, if he trains to his satisfaction. Arrangements are being made for his shipment on April 30. This practically settles the question of War Cloud being a starter in the Kentucky Derby.

While the bad weather necessitated horses being kept under the sheds for about five days, they have not been set back to any great extent and some rather fast work will be shown this week, according to schedule.

The H. A. Porter horses arrived at Belmont Park in fair form, eight in number, including Ultima Thule. They are in charge of Harry Morrissey and are the pick of the recent purchases of Mr. Porter. In the car with Mr. Porter horses came three belonging to John Madden.

Reports from the Jamaica track say that the Sanford horses are training satisfactorily. George Smith has rounded out into a much better-looking horse than he was last year and Meteorite is showing up well.

RESERVE STABLE ROOM AT LEXINGTON

Horsemen at Louisville Tracks to Send Big Consignment to Kentucky Association Course.

Louisville, Ky., April 15.—Judge W. Shelley visited both local tracks yesterday for the purpose of distributing the Lexington program book among the horsemen. He also secured a list of stables that are going to participate in the Blue Grass meeting. Practically every large establishment in local training is going to ship to Lexington. Among these are J. S. Ward, who will send his entire stable of fifteen head, among the number being Escoba; Henry McDaniel, who will send Sun Briar and eight others; Jefferson Livingston, who will forward twenty-one head, including his four Derby eligibles, and Middleton & Jones, with nine horses. Following are some of the others who have reserved stable room at Lexington, with the number of horses they will ship: Williams Bros., 12; B. J. Brannon, 10; Hawk & Shields, 7; W. H. Baker, 12; W. V. Walsh, 5; Thomas Murphy, in charge of the A. K. Macmober stable, 10; F. J. Kelley, 9; W. H. Frey, 2; Dan Lehan, 4; Miller Henderson, 5; C. C. Van Meter, 6; J. W. Schorr, 6; Otto Rogers, 4; A. B. Spreckels, 6; Kay Spence, 5; Joe Umensetter, 7; L. H. Dickinson, 2; John Lowe, 6.

SUN BRIAR TRAINING QUITE SOUNDLY

In response to an inquiry, based on unfounded New York reports that Sun Briar was amiss, trainer Henry McDaniel telegraphed Daily Racing Form the following satisfactory assurance yesterday:

"Louisville, Ky., April 15.

"Sun Briar is going absolutely sound to date. Went mile in 1:46 today with Tom McTaggart, first half in 48¾, Knapp up."

A. B. SPRECKELS' BAND OF YOUNGSTERS

California Turfman Has Eleven Two-Year-Olds at Churchill Downs in Charge of Trainer Carroll.

Louisville, Ky., April 15.—After an absence from the Kentucky tracks extending over a period of five years the colors of A. B. Spreckels, the California turfman, are to be carried on the local tracks this spring. Trainer C. W. Carroll, who had charge of the Spreckels horses the last time they were here, has just arrived at Churchill Downs from Coronado, Cal., bringing with him eleven two-year-olds, all the product of the Spreckels Napa Stock Farm, and the five-year-old mare Nezib. The youngsters have been in training since the first of the year, but are not as far advanced as the two-year-olds that have been here all winter.

All the youngsters in Mr. Carroll's care have been named, their owner, as has been his custom, having selected rather odd nomenclature for them. Six of the number are by Voorhees, while four are by Dr. Leggo. The remaining one is by Salvation. Before leaving Coronado trainer Carroll shipped ten two-year-olds, all by Salvation, to the Spreckels farm to be turned out. Following is the list of those he brought to Kentucky:

Docod, ch. c, by Voorhees—Love of Gold.
Ha Ha, b. f, by Voorhees—Salvatrix.
Iwin, br. or blk. f, by Dr. Leggo—Bremerhafen.
Itti, ch. f, by Dr. Leggo—Chiffie (half sister to Runes).
Iwiniwin, b. c, by Voorhees—Othale.
Legotal, ch. f, by Dr. Leggo—Pourquoi.
Napan, b. c, by Dr. Leggo—Gaviota.
Omeme, b. c, by Voorhees—Priceless Jewel.
Salgeorge, b. c, by Salvation—Georgia Girl.
Viver, ch. c, by Voorhees—Norinne.
Walterina, ch. f, by Voorhees—Lady Atheling.

GENERAL NEWS NOTES OF THE DAY

The big American naval collier Cyclops, carrying fifty-seven passengers, fifteen officers and 221 men in its crew, has been overdue at an Atlantic port since March 13. The Navy Department announced yesterday that the vessel was last reported at a West Indies island March 4 and that extreme anxiety is entertained as to its safety. The vessel was bringing a cargo of manganese from Brazil.

Several north Texas towns were damaged severely by a cyclone Sunday which crossed that part of the state. Thirty buildings, including a church and school, were blown down at the town of Boyd. So far as known no lives have been lost.

Senator William Joel Stone, of Missouri, chairman of the senate foreign relations committee and for many years prominent among Democratic leaders, died Sunday at Washington after a stroke of paralysis suffered last Wednesday.

With announcement that 49,843 additional selective draft men will be called to the colors on May 1 it became known today that America is rushing to the aid of the allies with unprecedented speed.

Count Czernin, Austro-Hungarian foreign minister, has resigned, according to a dispatch from Vienna.

VETERAN RACER CAPER SAUCE IS DEAD

Toronto, Ont., April 15.—Owner Sol Mintz, of Hamilton, reports the death from paralysis of Caper Sauce, the sixteen-year-old son of Morpheus—New Dance, and one of the most consistent and most popular of Canadian-bred horses. Caper Sauce was bred at Waterloo by J. E. Seagram, president of the Ontario Jockey Club, and, after leaving the stable of his breeder, for whom he won a number of races, he passed through the hands of several owners, for all of whom he earned frequent purses. Though he was considered to have passed his usefulness when Mr. Mintz bought him at ten years old, Caper Sauce continued his winning form, and raced as successfully as ever in the new colors. A remarkable feature of his racing was his winning of the same race, the Whitby Plate, at Woodbine for eight successive years. Owner Mintz has only two horses now, Akeldama and Old Reliable, and it is his intention to part with both.

NOTTER TO RIDE ESCOBA IN DERBY

Crack Jockey Signs Up to Pilot K. D. Alexander's Crack Colt in Kentucky's Most Coveted Race.

Louisville, Ky., April 15.—Jockey Joe Notter, one of the most experienced and capable riders in this country, will pilot Kenneth D. Alexander's Escoba in the Kentucky Derby. This was definitely decided upon yesterday morning, when Notter and John S. Ward, trainer of the colt, reached an agreement at Douglas Park, entirely satisfactory to both. Notter from now on will gallop Escoba in his work and have the mount on him in any of his starts at Lexington in advance of the Derby.

Mr. Ward has been besieged by jockeys seeking the coveted honor of piloting the crack colt in his Derby engagement and, in deciding to engage Notter, he believes he has secured quite the best rider obtainable. Notter, however, was not one that sought the engagement.

The question of who was to be selected as Escoba's rider had been hanging fire for a long time and, now that a rider of Notter's ability has been named, the colt's legion of admirers, comfortable and secure in the knowledge that he will be handled by as good a rider as there is on the American turf, will sit back smilingly and patiently waiting for the verdict.

Notter was free to accept this engagement, inasmuch as he had some time ago severed his connection with James Rowe, trainer for H. P. Whitney, for whom he had ridden for over ten years. Notter rode Regret in the Whitney colors in 1915, when that filly won the Derby and he also had the mount on Dominant, also from the Whitney stable, when the Whitney entry ran unplaced in 1916.

Notter maintains pleasant relations with his former employer, James Rowe, and is of the opinion that Mr. Rowe will surely send Rosie O'Grady and one other eligible to Churchill Downs to compete in the Derby. F. Robinson, the stable's regular rider, will be here to have the mount on the entry that trainer Rowe considers has the best chance in the big race.

BIG CROWD SEE DERBY WORK-OUTS

Freecutter, Sun Briar, Nelsweep and Jay Bird Given Sharp Work—Colonel Vennie Is Injured.

Louisville, Ky., April 15.—The biggest crowd of racing enthusiasts since the advent of spring was at Churchill Downs yesterday morning to watch the work-outs. The best move was recorded by George J. Long's Derby colt Freecutter, which worked a mile in 1:43⅘. He worked the distance in the following fractions—24⅘, 50, 1:03⅖, 1:16⅘, 1:30, going the full mile in 1:43⅘.

Willis Sharpe Kilmer's pair, Sun Briar and Nelsweeep, were given an "opener" in preparation for a more arduous move at one mile. They worked together three-eighths of a mile in 37, and after being pulled up Sun Briar veered toward the outside rail at the head of the stretch, giving the spectators the impression that he was going wide during his work-out, which was not the case.

The best move at Douglas Park was shown by J. W. Schorr's Derby colt, Jay Bird, which went three-quarters of a mile in 1:14, a new mark for the season. The colt showed a disposition to get away from his rider, E. Pool, who had all he could do to check his speed.

The five-year-old Colonel Vennie, the star of the Jefferson Livingston stable, in charge of Mose Goldblatt, struck himself in his stall a few nights ago and injured his right forefoot. The injury, although not serious, will prevent the horse from filling his stake engagements at Lexington. When the stable's shipment of twenty head was forwarded today to Lexington Colonel Vennie was left behind at Douglas Park in charge of William Covington, who has nine other of the stable's horses in his keeping.

John J. Troxler came over yesterday from Lexington to inspect his good three-year-old filly, Fern Handley, which has been in the care of Dick Williams since last fall. He was well pleased with her appearance and will shortly transfer her to Lexington, where Rhymer, his only other horse, is now in training. Fern Handley won the Golden Rod Stakes at Churchill Downs last fall and is now about ready for this season's campaign.

S. H. VELIE'S BREEDING OPERATIONS

Kansas City Manufacturer Has Half Dozen Mares in Stud at Thomas Piatt's Brookdale Farm.

Lexington, Ky., April 15.—S. H. Velie, the Kansas City manufacturer of plows and automobiles, and R. McCoy, his trainer, were here this week to see a half-dozen mares which Mr. Velie has quartered at Thomas Piatt's Brookdale Farm. The only mare of the six that thus far has produced is Florin, the seven-year-old daughter of Hamburg and Fiesole, by Goldfinch, dam the famous Firenze, by Glenelg. Florin has a magnificent yearling son by Fair Play, and by the same sire she has at foot a well-formed filly. This spring she was mated with Broomstick, inasmuch as Regret, the only filly ever to win the Kentucky Derby, is by Broomstick—Jersey Lightning, a daughter of Hamburg.

Lady Hildreth, a thirteen-year-old daughter of Golden Garter and Parabola, by Sir Modred—Parable, by Candlemas, is due soon to foal to Candlemas. Lady Teresa, a six-year-old daughter of Star Shoot and Maribel, by Hindoo, has been mated with Delhi, while Star Berta has been to the court of Ballot. Star Berta is eight years old and is a sister to Leo Skolny and Northern Light. Mr. Velie has not decided upon the stallion or stallions for the five-year-old Blue Cap, by Hastings—Blue Jacket, by Whistle Jacket, and six-year-old Marion Rose II., by Bearcatcher—Marion Rose, by Balgowan. Neither has he made up his mind about a mate for Lady Hildreth.

Trainer McCoy says that Serenade, the twelve-year-old daughter of Handsel and The Charmer, which Mr. Velie has at his Missouri farm, is one of the best polo ponies in the world and for that reason she has not been bred. Captain Velie, son of the owner, used her with great success before the declaration of war. Should the war be prolonged, however, Serenade will be sent to the stud. Mr. Velie is hopeful that a bill under which racing may be conducted in Missouri with legalized betting may be passed at the next session of the legislature, in which event he will establish a large stud in his home state.

THIRTY LEADING AMERICAN JOCKEYS

With only one track in operation last week the riders composing the thirty leaders had scanty chances for improving their records, but one of them, J. Rodriguez, did the best riding of his career so far and had the enviable record of guiding ten winners home. The Bowie meeting was truly a fortunate one for him. When it opened he had thirteen winning mounts to his credit. In the course of its two weeks he added eighteen more. Another rising lightweight, H. Erickson, did well with six. D. Stirling and T. Rice rode three winners each. None of the others of the thirty had a winner and the riding record of 1918 now stands:

TURF NOTES FROM LANDS ABROAD

Botafogo, the Argentinian champion, by Old Man—Korea, has recently set up a fresh mile record for the Argentine, having galloped that distance in 1:37⅖.

George Stern, the famous flat-race jockey, who was rejected by the army on the score of lack of inches, has now been called to the colors in the English auxiliary army.

For the first time in its history the Doncaster Corporation has had to levy a borough rate, owing to the absence of the revenue from the race meetings. It will amount to 36 cents in the pound.
